

social event of the season was given by the Ladies' Democratic club of Provo at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Pike this afternoon. The event was in honor of Mrs. Alice M. Horne of Salt Lake city. Mrs. Horne, in company with Miss Rose Young, Democratic candidate for county recorder, held a very enthusiastic rally on Provo bench during the afternoon, returning to the city at 2:30 p. m. At 4 o'clock the large party at the Pike residence were opened to from 500 to 600 invited guests, who remained until 10 o'clock in the evening and partook of the hospitality of the ladies' club and Dr. and Mrs. Pike. The parlors and dining rooms were artistically decorated with national flags, bunting and chrysanthemums. Bryan and Stevenson's portraits beautifully decorated with national colors hung in the halls and parlors. A most delicious spread was laid for the large crowd and the banqueting went on from 4 p. m. to 10 p. m. Sweet strains of music enlivened the occasion and the vocal selections were given by Provo's abiding talent. The Ladies' Democratic club of Provo, under the leadership of Mrs. Horne, returned to Salt Lake at 10 o'clock and were met at the depot by Mrs. Rob. Irvine, Mrs. Arvilla Clark and Mrs. Sadie Ramsey furnished the vocal music. EUREKA SOCIETY.
(Special Correspondence.)
Eureka, Oct. 27.—Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Fennell, who have been away for some time on a wedding tour to Denver, have returned to Eureka and are at home to friends at their home on upper Main street.

The Bryan Silver club of Eureka conducted a well attended ball at Odd Fellows' hall Friday night. The dance was a success both socially and financially. The Ladies' Mary Bryan club served a palatable lunch at the court house during the evening.

E. D. R. Thompson, the Salt Lake attorney, was in the district the early part of the week.

John A. Hunt and wife came out from Salt Lake City last evening and will remain for a few days, the guests of friends.

The initial dance of the V club will be given at the Odd Fellows' hall next Tuesday night.

Arthur L. Louder is back in town, after a short absence.

Fred Albert and wife were up from American Fork this week.

Al Price was the guest of his brother, T. J. Price, two or three days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Osteln were Zion visitors last Sunday.

Arthur Law went in to Salt Lake on business today.

Mrs. T. J. Price has gone to Salt Lake to live.

Attorneys F. H. Holzheimer, B. W. C. Stott, N. A. Robertson and Edward Pike attended court at Nephi this week.

"Dan Sullivan, who has been in the hospital at Salt Lake for about three weeks, returned home this week.

W. C. De War has accepted a position on the Nephi Record.

The Ladies' Aid society will give a New England dinner next Tuesday evening.

ALLENS BURY HATCHET
Their Divorce Case Is Settled Out of Court.
THREE NEW SUITS FILED
PROCEEDINGS IN AUERBACH ESTATE TOWARD SETTLEMENT.

The sensational divorce suit of Jane Allen against Samuel E. Allen was yesterday dismissed by stipulation at defendant's cost by Judge Hiles. Samuel McDowell appearing for plaintiff and Powers, Straup & Lippman for defendant. The brief stipulation was all that indicated the terms of a compromise agreement recently entered into between Mr. and Mrs. Allen.

In Sept. 12 Mrs. Allen filed a complaint in the district court for a decree of divorce and larre alimony from her husband on the allegation that he was living with one Eliza Cook on Princeton avenue, and that he had recently neglected to provide for his wife's support. The defendant answered the complaint, denying all of the material allegations in his wife's complaint, and by way of demanding affirmative relief set up that plaintiff had treated him cruelly with hand and tongue. Mr. Allen averred that his wife, with whom he had lived for thirty-eight years, had lately demeaned herself so that it was impossible for him to live with her any longer in peace and contentment.

The terms of the settlement between Mr. and Mrs. Allen are not stated for publication, but both have buried the hatchet, it is said, and will share each other's joys and sorrows from now on as they formerly did before the misunderstanding occurred.

CLOSING UP ESTATE.
Affairs of Estate of F. H. Auerbach Being Put in Shape For Settlement.
As a step in the proceeding toward settling the affairs of the estate of the late Frederick H. Auerbach, deceased, who died within five years, the resignation of Samuel H. Auerbach, one of the executors, was yesterday accepted by Judge Hiles.

The resigning executor expects to become a purchaser of decedent's interest in the dry goods business of F. H. Auerbach & Bro., but under the law he could not purchase the same as executor. The court yesterday approved the executors' fourth annual account.

DAMAGES CLAIMED.
Rio Grande Western Sued For Injuries From Recent Accident.
As a sequence to the painful injuries he received on the morning of Oct. 12 at the Fifth South street crossing of the Rio Grande Western railway tracks, where a number of freight cars "kicked" by a switch engine bore down upon his team, Robert E. Buttle yesterday filed suit in the district court for $2,000 damages from the railway company. Negligence upon the part of defendant company's employees is alleged as the cause of plaintiff's injuries.

Guardian For Life Insurance.
William Schade yesterday applied to the district court for letters of special guardianship for his six minor children, who have an interest in petitioner's life insurance policy from the Equitable Life Assurance society. The petitioner desires to have the policy surrendered and a new one issued for a lesser amount, and in order to do so the release of the minors must be obtained through a guardian. The petition will be heard on Oct. 31.

COMPLEX FORECLOSURE.
Numerous Lien Claimants Made Defendants In Mortgage Suit.
B. H. Schettler, trustee for J. T. Coxall, yesterday commenced suit in the district court against David James to recover $2,500, together with 10 per cent attorneys' fees and interest at 10 per cent yearly from Aug. 10, 1900, alleged to be due on a promissory note, and for foreclosure of a mortgage on 5x10 rods of ground in lot 1, block 137, plat A. T. R. Jones & Co., the National Bank of the Republic, the Utah National bank, L. E. Ritter & Co., W. H. Schuler, Lydia James and David W. James are made party defendants, the prayer being to have their liens on the mortgage premises declared subordinate to plaintiff's.

Arguments Not Concluded.
Judge Cherry's time was occupied yesterday afternoon hearing the arguments on motion for a nonsuit in the case of H. L. Driver et al. vs. the Utah Light & Power company for recovery of possession of poles, wires, gas pipes and meters sold at judgment execution sale early in the year to satisfy plaintiff's claim against defendant company's predecessors. At the hour of adjournment the arguments had not been concluded.

Suit on Cigar Bill.
Hirschhorn, Mack & Co. yesterday instituted suit in the district court against the Nelden-Judson Drug company to recover $54.70, alleged to be due on a consignment of cigars and tobacco sold to defendant company.

District Court Orders.
The following orders were made yesterday by Judge Cherry:

State ex rel. Charles B. Staats vs. J. B. Timmony, police justice: application for writ of mandamus compelling respondent to grant change of venue, denied.

W. J. Buck vs. Henry Shields: by consent case transferred from Summit county and referred to Judge Hiles for trial.

J. D. Hawker vs. D. J. Griffiths: by consent defendant allowed to file amended answer to garnishment.

Will S. Rising vs. Salt Palace association: motion to retax costs overruled.

W. S. McCormick & Co. vs. Bingham Tunnel company et al.: demurrer overruled by consent and ten days allowed to answer.

C. C. Dey et al. vs. Bingham Tunnel company: default of defendant ordered and judgment for plaintiffs for $4,000 for attorneys' fees.

Andrew J. Swenson vs. J. J. Snell: demurrer confessed and five days allowed to amend complaint.

Red Wing Gold Mining company vs. W. D. Clays: demurrer sustained and plaintiff allowed to amend complaint instantly by interlineation; twenty days allowed to answer.

John Johnson, by guardian, vs. Emma E. Johnson: case ordered transferred to Judge Hiles for trial.

Rio Grande Western Railway company vs. George Crismon et al.: motion to strike out that part of defendant's answer saying all they were offered for right-of-way sought to be condemned was only $1,200, denied; leave granted to amend complaint and statutory time allowed defendants to plead to motion for permission to occupy strip of land.

Probate Proceedings.
The following orders in probate were made yesterday by Judge Hiles:

Estate of Charles Sheppard, deceased: Joseph H. Sheppard appointed administrato to succeed W. M. Sheppard, deceased, under bond of $10,000.

Estate of John Schofield, deceased: sale of personal property authorized.

Estate of James C. Walker, deceased: final account of administration allowed and decree of distribution entered.

Estate and guardianship of Samuel D. and William G. Woolley, minors: Amos M. Woolley required to show cause within twenty days why he should not comply with order of court as to giving bond before acting as guardian.

Estate of Elizabeth M. Davies, deceased: will admitted to probate and T. V. Williams and D. B. Jones commissioned executors.

Before Judge Hiles.
The case of John F. Schelb, by his guardian ad litem, vs. James Thompson, executor, was argued yesterday before Judge Hiles and submitted for decision.

In the case of A. Milton Musser vs. J. H. E. Webster, death of defendant was noted and J. W. Edmunds, administrator, was substituted as defendant.

A Letter of Thanks.
Portland, Ore., Sept. 7, 1900.
Mr. O. F. Woodward—Dear Sir:—For the past two years I have been troubled greatly with a redness of my skin and a great number of pimples on my face. I tried almost everything under the sun to rid myself of these disorders, but nothing did me any good until I got a package of Lane's Tea. I have used it for two weeks steady, and my complexion is as clear as a mirror and my skin as white as snow.
